Masonry wall Deck and Columns . Site Variations: A building structure shall be able to withstand the horizontal and vertical forces that result from loading that is normal for the area and climate and . This booklet gives an overview of how to draw and analyze masonry wall structures. . . the planet's total value, thus you can spin all you want -- the way I do for the rest of my life. Still the most effective way to get gold out of an asteroid, if it's just inside the orbit of Jupiter. In a long-term stratagem, now, because it's a source of raw materials, it can be spun up through the inner planets. We don't have to go through all the Kuiper Belt and down to the Oort, and if it's just inside the orbit of Mars, the red planet, you can make huge amounts of carbon out of an asteroid there, as well, just spinning it up as you whirl it. . Two, I think it's important to start thinking of this asteroid business as a utility that we can start using. We should be starting to look at this as an essential way we can begin to deal with fossil-fuel depletion and climate change in a way that is consistent with the first principles of Creation -- that is, that we're stewards. . Third, when you ask about ecoterrorism here, I'm going to go after people with some cards they might not have known they were holding. I'll go after people who would like to sabotage space projects, because the potential damage is enormous -- from the point of view of people, if we abandon that technology, with all its possibilities, and with all its potential for social benefit -- the possibilities of it almost immediately going out of control could be astronomical. And it's not just an individual risk: it's a risk to society. People need to understand that, because it's precisely because of the potential for the ultimate kind of disaster with space projects that we shouldn't do them. And to support the idea that we shouldn't do them, there are some political motives in play, as well, that have to do with what people would do when they do get into those situations, and the kinds of crazy, supposedly-right-wing people who would, for example, steal rockets in order to destroy them. This isn't what I personally think. But it's one of the things I think I have to worry about. I
