Desert Rats vs. Africa Korps - review of gameplay:. Desert Rats vs. Africa Korps, is a game the brings WW2 in a (only a little) different way. The game is based on a real board game and is basically a large scale WW2 RTS. The beauty of the game is that it is also playable in offline and is expandable by multiplayer as well as single player modes. The game is very well designed, but can be a little confusing for novices at times, but if you are a fan of 3d tactical games or RTS games you will definitely like the game. Desert Rats vs. Africa Korps has many things going for it, besides simply being a good game. The good news is that the game looks awesome, and plays excellent as well. The game really has very good graphics which are top notch, without the slightest bit of slowdown. The game's audio is rather nice as well, and it does come with excellent sound which is played at high quality as well. The game has a great 3D engine, allowing realistic sim like movements through the map at any time. The
