A: I was able to fix this by removing the display control panel and then reinstalling it. I had this issue as well but wasn't able to fix it. The present invention relates generally to improvements in fishing equipment and, more particularly, to an improved fishing rod and reel. The rod and reel of this invention have unique features which have not been heretofore available in the art. The structure and operation of the rod and reel of this invention facilitates the casting of long distance casts. The structure and operation also facilitates the use of the rod and reel in shallow water. The present invention also provides an effective method of adjusting the bait to be more easily visible to a fish. It is generally known that a bait can be hung on a fishing pole. However, such structures are often cumbersome to use. Also, they can be cumbersome to transport when fishing is not immediately necessary. It is also generally known to provide rods with guides which may be shifted in order to accommodate a variety of distances between a fisherman and the target fish. Such rods are generally used for sport fishing, and are not capable of easy transport in a fisherman's tackle bag. A number of casting rods are known in the art. However, the structures of such rods are generally not capable of easy manipulation of the rod in shallow water.
