This is awarded to four members of the SIMA, who all graduated from this year's Executive MBA programme held in the UK. The new awardees are: Innovation & Society Facebook Twitter LinkedIn Google+ All four candidates had already been practicing for a number of years as part of the SIMA, but only now can they be fully considered to be qualified candidates for the master. These four are Anne Nisbet, Péter Sándor, Zsuzsa Vittyá, and Joerg Weber. The four candidates are now required to complete a 60-hour special research project at the University of Manchester in addition to the global project. This project is intended to demonstrate the candidates' mastery of the theoretical concepts and the practical skills involved in the application of the SIMA model and methodology. The University of Manchester is currently calculating the final points for these awards, which will take some time to be determined. Dr. Bob Evans, president of SIMA,
