===== 1)10 different backgrounds (832x640px) 2)4 different penguin animations 3)Penguins are fast-paced birds, so we present the best method to contain their movements. If you create another theme and plan on applying the same idea, it is better to apply it to a size matching element, like a button, or a section. If you have to do so, be sure not to copy or re-size the element after. 4) Every penguin is movable by clicking on them. 5) Every penguin has a unique animation to it, which can be chosen using a combo box. 6) Perfectly balanced in terms of both colours and contrast. 7) In case the penguins get out of their element, they hover in between their elements, and the effect can be seen, if you “play” the theme on a very high screen resolution. 8) The quack button is also unique to this theme, as it will change the graphic of the theme. "This is the 'Wild West,'" Maryam Shahif was explaining to me as we trudged down a rocky path and came across a pond with a handful of ducks crossing. Shahif and her younger sister, Aysha, are immigrants from Iran who fled the country in the summer of 2008. They were living in Tehran and they knew from the Iranian people they knew that their country was on the brink of war with the United States. They packed their belongings and left for Berlin, Germany. It was a short flight to Turkey and from there they continued to Canada. Shahif said it was scary at times, and she worried about the border police. "You know the border is not completely safe for anybody," she said, adding that they were all "kind of nervous." Once in the country, they caught a ride to Des Plaines with a friend. They first lived in a motel because they could afford it, but by the time they arrived, they could barely find a room to stay in. "We couldn't find anything," Aysha said. "We didn't understand it too well." Shahif said they only had enough money to last a few weeks. They went from the motel to the Bibi Warner Center, a home for unwed mothers. They also lived with Shaul and Lianna Rahm, another couple who immigrated to the United States from Iran. "We lived in this place for three months," Shahif said
